Boule 2010 Highlights

Welcome Soror Ellen Johnson Sirleaf, President of Liberia

Ellen Johnson Sirleaf is the current President of Liberia. Sirleaf is Africa's first female elected head of state. She served as Assistant Minister of Finance from 1972 to 1973 under William Tolbert's administration. She resigned after getting into a disagreement about spending. Subsequently she was Minister of Finance from 1979 to April 1980, and she she served as Director of Citibank Nairobi from 1983 to 1985. When Samuel Doe declared himself president of Liberia and unbanned political parties in the country, she decided to return to her home country to participate in elections and run against Doe. She was placed under house arrest and sentenced to 10 years in prison. Sirleaf served a much shorter time before taking the offer to once more go into exile.

By 1996 the presence of West African peacekeepers created a lull in the civil war and elections were held, spurring Sirleaf to return once more to contest the elections. She came second in a controversial election, losing with 10% of the vote to Charles Taylor's 75%. Many observers said the election was fair, though Sirleaf was soon charged with treason. By 1999 civil war had returned to the region and Taylor was accused of interfering with his neighbors, fomenting unrest and rebellion. On August 11, 2003, after much persuasion, Charles Taylor handed power over to his deputy Moses Blah. The new interim government and rebel groups signed a historic peace accord and set about installing a new head of state. Sirleaf was proposed as a possible candidate, but in the end the diverse groups selected Charles Bryant, a political neutral. Sirleaf served as head of the Governance Reform Commission. Sirleaf played an active role in the transitional government as the country prepared for the 2005 elections and eventually stood for president against her rival, the ex-international "footballer" (soccer player), George Weah of the Unity Party. Sirleaf won a majority in the election though Weah disputed the results. The announcement of the new leader was postponed until further investigations were carried out.

On November 23, 2005, Sirleaf was declared the winner of the Liberian election and confirmed as the country's next president. Her inauguration, attended by many foreign dignitaries, including United States Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice and First Lady Laura Bush, took place on January 16, 2006. In November 2007, she received the United States Presidential Medal of Freedom, the U.S. government's highest civilian award. Soror Sirleaf became a member in 1968 of Eta Beta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., in Liberia.

The Sirleaf Market Women's Fund

The purpose of the Sirleaf Market Women's Fund (SMWF) is to help Liberian women traders restore their livelihoods as they recover from 14 years of civil war. During those years of conflict, Liberia's market women sustained their families, saved lives and kept food supplies flowing in the face of life-threatening conditions while they marched and negotiated for peace. In 2005 they turned their hard-won organizational skills to the election of Ellen Johnson Sirleaf, the granddaughter of a market woman. In a landslide vote she was elected President of Liberia.

The election was November 23, 2005; ten days later a group of international supporters of Liberia and Africa gathered in New York and decided to establish the Sirleaf Market Women's Fund. As Liberians engage in reconstruction and reconciliation, a special concern is renewal of the rundown and battered markets. These are places where women buy and sell from mats on the ground or temporary shelters – places that have become community centers despite the lack of resources and poor conditions.

Adopt-A-Market Campaign

The SMWF Adopt-A-Market Campaign allows individuals, organizations, corporations and large institutions to become involved by renovating or building markets in Liberia at any donation level. It also is a way to build strong relationships between Liberians and people and institutions across the world. By adopting a market, individuals are helping to economically stabilize a cross-section of families and communities while supporting economic development and the reconstruction of Liberia at its core.

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. is pleased to partner with the Sirleaf Market Women's Fund and pledges a substantial contribution to assist in the building of the markets.

Ecumenical Service Highlights

Rev. Cynthia L. Hale, D. Min.

Rev. Dr. Cynthia L. Hale is the founding and Senior Pastor of the Ray of Hope Christian Church in Decatur, Georgia. Ray of Hope has an active membership of 5,000 and an average of 1,500 in worship each Sunday morning. Ray of Hope has been honored by the 700 Club as Church of the Week and was also recognized in the book, Excellent Protestant Congregations: The Guide to Best Places and Practice, as one of 300 excellent Protestant congregations in the United States.

Soror Hale is a native of Roanoke, Virginia. Her natural talent in music led her to study at Hollins University in Virginia, from which she received her Bachelor of Arts degree. She holds a Master of Divinity degree from Duke University and a Doctor of Ministry degree from United Theological Seminary, Dayton, Ohio. Soror Hale holds five Honorary Doctor of Divinity degrees, with the most recent conferred by the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta, Georgia.

As a woman of vision, Soror Hale is revered locally, nationally and internationally for her leadership, integrity, and compassion. In 2004, she established a mentorship program known as Elah Pastoral Ministries, Inc. to assist in the spiritual as well as practical development of pastors and para-church leaders. In addition to her commitment to Ray of Hope Christian Church, Soror Hale serves on an array of boards. In May 2006, she was elected to the Board of Trustees at Hollins University. Dr. Hale was inducted into the African American Biographies Hall of Fame and the Martin Luther King's Board of Preachers of Morehouse College. Selected by then-Senator Barack Obama and the Democratic Party, she gave the opening invocation at the 2008 Democratic National Convention. In 2009, she was privileged to participate at the National Prayer Service for the inauguration of President Barack Obama. Later in 2009, Dr. Hale was appointed to serve on the President's Commission on White House Fellowships. She also served as Co-Chair for "Women In Ministry for Obama." Additionally, Dr. Hale was featured on CNN's documentary "Black in America Part 2."

Soror Hale has been in ministry for 30 years and has received numerous honors and recognitions. She is honored to be an active member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

Rev. Dr. Margaret Elaine M. Flake

Long recognized as a powerful preacher, teacher and role model with a gift for reaching worshippers of all ages, the Reverend Margaret Elaine M. Flake has been impacting the many lives she touches at The Greater Allen A.M.E. Cathedral (GAC) and throughout the country. She has dedicated her life to the betterment of others by leading Christian education, evangelistic and outreach ministries. Dr. Flake is an itinerant Elder in the African Methodist Episcopal Church. She and her husband, the Rev. Floyd H.

Flake, founded the Allen Christian School in 1982. This is a leading Christian educational institution, providing a competitive education and special curriculum for young Christians (pre-k through eight). The school currently enrolls 600 African-American students. Fondly called Reverend Elaine by the GAC congregation, she was instrumental in developing the Allen Women's Resource Center which houses victims of domestic violence; the Allen Prison Ministry, and many other of the 102 ministries at the GAC that serve both church and community. She acts as Advisor to the Missionary Department and as Advisor/Coordinator of the Allen Women's Ministry Department. Each year over 1,000 women from across the country and the Caribbean attend the retreats she hosts. Reverend Elaine has played a crucial role in increasing the membership of The Greater Allen A.M.E. Cathedral. Dr. Flake is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

Rev. Mignonne E.M. Snipes

Rev. Mignonne E.M. Snipes is an Ordained Elder in the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, born in the state of New York. Also, she is the daughter of the Rev. Johnnie Snipes, III, and the Rev. Dr. Gloria M. Snipes. Dr. Snipes is the Senior Pastor of Scott A.M.E. Zion Church in Wilmington, Del. Rev. Snipes is a member of the Philadelphia-Baltimore Conference where she is personal assistant to her mother. A proud graduate of Tuskegee University, she received her Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science and Pre-law. She is a graduate of Hood Theological Seminary where she received her Master of Divinity degree. Rev. Snipes holds a Certificate in Church Administration from Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta, Ga. She serves as a Professor for Religious Studies at Livingstone College. Rev. Snipes recently completed the Summer Institute for Women in Higher Education Administration at Bryn Mawr College. While at Tuskegee, Rev. Snipes served as president of the University Choir, president of the Pre-Law Society for three consecutive terms; vice-president of the Coalition of 100 Black Women for two consecutive terms; Co-Founder of the First Collegiate Chapter of National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc. (NCBW Tuskegee University College Division), and served as Ombudsperson, a position appointed by the president of the university. She was also a member of the Student Government Association, where she served as president for two summer terms, Student Judicial Advisor and Chief of Staff. Rev. Snipes' Motto: "One must strive for excellence in all that you do and God will see you through." She is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, Outstanding Young Women of America, Tuskegee National Alumni Association, and Hood Theological Seminary Alumni Association.

Rev. Leslie Dowdell Cannon

The Rev. Leslie Dowdell Cannon has served as the Senior Associate Minister at Peoples Congregational United Church of Christ for over a decade. Her ministry has covered a wide range of congregational life including worship and preaching, administration, fine arts, and Women's ministries as well as a host of other pastoral ministries that have helped to sustain the mission and purpose of the church of Jesus Christ. Rev. Cannon began her service in 1997 as the Senior Associate under the leadership of the former Pastor, Dr. A. Knighton Stanley. Prior to coming to Washington, she was a lifelong member of the Congregational Church of Park Manor in Chicago, Illinois. During Dr. Rueben Sheares' pastorate, she received the call to ministry and with his guidance she began her Seminary training. She served as Student Minister and then Associate Minister in Christian Education at the Congregational Church of Park Manor. In addition, she served as program associate for the Churches in Community Unit of the Community Renewal Society under Dr. Yvonne Delk who served as executive director. Rev. Cannon developed the senior's Ministry network with African American and Latino congregations on the Westside of Chicago in collaboration with the Retirement Research Foundation. Since relocating to Washington DC, she has served on the Environmental Justice Advisory Group, as In Care Coordinator for the Church and Ministry Committee of the Potomac Association and was Chair of the 2003 African American Women in Ministry Retreat for the United Church of Christ. She also served as the Chaplain for the 2005 Global Ministries immersion tour in South Africa to promote HIV/AIDS prevention and education. Rev. Cannon contributed to the books "What Can Happen When We Pray," Augsburg Fortress Press, and "Reparations," a study guide for local congregations developed by the Justice and Witness ministries of the United Church of Christ. Rev. Cannon represented the UCC during the interfaith worship celebration for the Centennial of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. Rev. Cannon is a graduate of Fisk University, with a BS in Art and a Masters of Divinity degree from Chicago Theological Seminary. Soror Cannon was initiated into Pi Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

TWENTY PEARLS FORUM (SFOI)

Preserving Our Legacy — Featuring Former Supreme Basilei

The culture of Alpha Kappa Alpha is grounded in our unique treasures of: values, structure, character, integrity, and processes. If they are lost, then we risk shattering the essence of our beloved sisterhood. Don't miss this incredible opportunity to hear from our "Living Legacies" as they remind all of our rich inheritance. Moderator: Soror Bernice E. Ripley.

SUPPORTING WORKSHOPS FOR TWENTY PEARLS FORUM

Sign up for one of the following workshops to explore the topic of interest to you in more detail!

144 Sisterly Relations: A Commitment to Our Pearls

The essence of Alpha Kappa Alpha is our ability to appreciate the best of our sisterhood and confront in a sisterly way, those things that make our hearts hurt. This highly participative workshop will practice a model that can be replicated in chapters everywhere. Participants will leave with a presenters guide for use at chapter workshops and retreats. Presenter: Soror Bernice E. Ripley

164 Advanced Protocol ATTENTION REGION & CLUSTER PROTOCOL TEAMS!

Reduce your anxiety around doing things the right way at your next conference. Knowledge and preparation are the key factors for successful and seamless protocol at our major conferences. This required workshop is designed for those sorors and chapters who will be hosting a Regional Conference or Boule in the next 2 years. Presenter: Soror Francene Gilmore.

165 Constitution ESP

When a question arises regarding our Constitution and By Laws, do you know where to find it? Do you know how to apply it? Come test your ability to work with our keystone documents. Leave this workshop with an improved level of confidence in your ability to navigate and interpret our documents. Be sure to bring your Constitution and By Laws and Manual of Standard Procedure.

167 Membership Models for Success in 2010

Is your chapter currently planning a membership intake process? Now that chapters have successfully implemented the newly revised process, come hear testimonials on "key learnings" from chapters who have completed the process. This interactive workshop is designed to assist sorors with planning and implementing the new MIP. Included in this workshop will be input from the AKA Corporate Office Membership staff. Presenters: Sorors Caroline Latimore, Constance Pizarro.

168 Standards: The Essence of Excellence

Now that your chapter has been evaluated, this workshop will assist you in keeping your chapter Alpha Kappa Alpha compliant. We will help you develop a mind-set of "Excellence" as a routine way of practicing effective chapter operations. Presenter: Soror Alma Ivey Clarke.

178 Making ESP Work: Program Transition

The beauty of ESP Program Platforms is that many activities you have implemented have long term implications and application beyond the current administration. A seamless transition will be the key to your success moving forward. Current program chairman will not want to miss this workshop! Presenter: Soror Loann Honesty King.

184 Advanced Parliamentary Procedures

It's one thing to have been educated on parliamentary procedures. It's another thing to put that knowledge into action. Attendance is a "do not miss" for sorors who will be leading chapter and committee meetings. This session is designed around real time situations that challenge even the most knowledgeable in parliamentary procedures. Presenter: TBA.

185 Rituals

Solemn, heartfelt and reverent define the foundation of our rituals. Ensure your chapters are familiar with the process and their individual involvement in every aspect of our rituals. This workshop will provide a model for teaching rituals at chapter meetings and retreats, including the songs. Presenters: Sorors Juanita Simms Doty, Ella Springs Jones.

186 Simply the Best: Excellence in Strategic Preservation

It's "Show Me" time in archiving. Each Region's Excellence in Strategic Preservation award winners (1 undergraduate chapter and 1 graduate chapter) will be featured in this showcase of the best practices in archiving. Not only will you witness Regional models of excellence, but you will also help determine which practices merit distinction and the National designation as "Simply the Best." Presenter: Soror Ernestine Green McNealey.

CORPORATE BOARD FORUM (SF02)

Corporate Board Governance, The Whole Truth

Female board directors make good business sense and have a significant impact on board inputs and firm outcomes. Power personalities will share how they broke corporate barriers to secure their board seats. Get ready! Women are on the radar screen for board governance. Companies now get it! Their board composition should reflect the population and its customers. You can be the choice for the director's candidate pool. This is a must-attend! Moderator: Soror Patricia Russell McCloud. Panelist: Veronica J. Biggins, Erma C. Hadley, Debra Nelson, Regina Glenn.

107 Networking Necessities

Have a network that works. Ask yourself what you want your colleagues to say about you when you leave the room. Build relationships that are value added. Being in a beneficial network is more than a buzz phrase. Raise your profile for recognition, and recommendation to serve in board governance. Sharing experiences and expertise is critical. Make your time and talent count. Presenter: Soror Evelyn Sample-Oates.

108 Framing Your Profile for Board Governance

If you are not managing your personal image, others are. People are constantly observing your behavior and forming theories about your competence, character and commitment. Board governance requires technical abilities, social skills, strong character, integrity, trustworthiness, caring, humility and proven capability. Frame yourself! Identify Your Expertise! Hone Your Image! Package Your Skills! Presenter: Soror Patricia Russell McCloud.

114 Corporate Governance: Sarbanes Oxley

Board Governance: When does it become "Board Negligence?" Directors are responsible for ensuring that an organization relates to people in accordance with the law, acts in a fiscally prudent manner, and is efficient and effective in achieving its purposes. Without due diligence, a Director can be held liable for negligence. Learn the laws—especially Sarbanes Oxley legislation. Presenter: Soror Sharon Price Cates.

182 Board Member Responsibilities and Code of Conduct

Sorors aspiring to become members of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Directorate need to understand the big picture as it relates to board member responsibilities. The uniqueness of membership on this Board is being able to understand, apply and live the Code of Conduct expected of sitting Board members. You are encouraged to actively engage in the discussions during this workshop to gain clarity and insight. Presenter: Soror Carol L. Waitse.

183 Sorority Financial Procedures

No organization can afford to have its key decision makers learning as they go as it relates to its fiscal well being. The practice of sound fiscal management is the expectation of any board. This workshop content includes: the magnitude of the fiscal responsibilities of Board Members; the uniqueness of the financial processes of the organization and the rationale for how we handle our finances. Presenter: Soror Berna Greer.

PUBLIC POLICY FORUM (SF03)

Advocates for Change: Silence Is Not an Option

We need to become knowledgeable stakeholders on public policy issues that impact the communities we serve. Silence is not an option. Expert panelist will deliver profound messages on topics such as: campaigning on the local state and national levels; maximizing AKA Day at the Capital; domestic violence, environmental responsibilities and women's health issues. This Forum is an opportunity to take our Connections Commitment to the next level! Moderator: Soror Lucretia Payton Stewart. Panelists: Sorors Vanessa Rogers Long, Quincy Lucas, Marjorie Young,

SUPPORTING WORKSHOPS FOR PUBLIC POLICY FORUM

172 Making Connections Count: Getting Involved in the Legislative Process

No need to sit on the sidelines, it is time for us to get into the game! It begins with an understanding of potential legislation that impacts our communities. You need to know the process and how to be actively involved in making a bill become a law in the House and Senate. Presenter: Soror Vanessa Rogers Long.

172B Alpha Kappa Alpha Day at the Capital: Making our Numbers Count

Arriving at your state capital in pink and green has a great visual impact. But arriving informed and with a plan is the first key to influencing your lawmakers. The content presented will enable you to create a climate that requires state legislators to listen to your concerns on issues related to budgets, appropriations and the monitoring of bills that impact the welfare of your communities. The second key is collaboration; there is power in numbers, Make Yours Count! This workshop will definitely kick your Connections Committee into high gear! Presenter: TBA.

174 ESP Platform II: Economic Keys to Success — The Energy Workshop

The rising cost of electricity, natural gas and heating oil has put a burden on households, businesses, churches and other entities in our communities. This workshop will explore effective strategies to "Go Green" by developing collaborative community outreach programs that can provide both energy and cost savings information. Presenters: Sorors Susan Simms Marsh and Gail M. Davis.

174B ESP Platform II: Economic Keys to Success: The Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. & CARE Partnership

With more than sixty years of experience, CARE has helped countless communities, families and individuals realize their potential to make lasting social changes in the face of extreme poverty. Because they suffer the consequences of global poverty disproportionately, women and young girls must develop the capacity to implement real, community-shaping change. Join this workshop to learn and be inspired by the strategies in place to empower women around the world to improve education, health and economic opportunities for their families and communities. Presenters: TBA.

176 ESP Platform V: Health Resource Management — Women's Health Issues

Women of color facing Health Reform Issues can be defined as a class within our health care system. One out of three black women has no health insurance. "Black women have some of the highest rates of most major chronic conditions such as: hypertension, diabetes, strokes, cancer, obesity and the highest statistic in newly diagnosed cases of AIDS. Participants will have an opportunity to explore models that focus on lifestyle changes with emphasis on disease prevention, treatment and nutrition education. Presenter: TBA.

190 She Should Run: Women in Politics

Only 10% of women have ever thought about running for office compared to 20% of men. Despite our progress, women still lag behind men in local, state and federal office. Alpha Kappa Alpha needs to build a pipeline for women who support our issues. Participants will build a blueprint for successful campaigning by identifying networks, tools and resources that are helpful in running effective campaigns. Special emphasis will be placed on the benefits of building coalitions and creating a trust environment at the grassroots level. Presenter: TBA.

191 Domestic Violence: Break the Cycle & Create a Safety Plan

Domestic violence is the leading cause of injury to women between the ages of 15-44 in the United States. Awareness through education is the first step in fighting this deadly crime plaguing our nation. This workshop will explore causes of domestic violence, creating awareness programs, identifying strategies for collaborating with agencies that support efforts on domestic violence and much more. Presenter: Soror Quincy Lucas.

UNDERGRADUATE ACTIVITIES FORUM (SF04)

“The View” Welcome to the Real World: Post-Graduation Life

The most important question that will face every undergraduate remains, “What will I do after graduation? This forum will utilize a panel of recent and seasoned graduate sorors pursuing successful professional careers while balancing a healthy personal, family, and social life while maintaining membership in Alpha Kappa Alpha. Moderators: Sorors: Melanie C. Jones and Soror Shayla M. Johnson. Panelist: TBA.

SUPPORTING WORKSHOPS FOR UNDERGRADUATE ACTIVITIES FORUM

144A Am I my Sister’s Keeper?

Sisterhood presents its own unique challenges. This workshop will address conflict resolution in undergraduate chapters and how the Soror Code of Ethics encompasses the “sisterly approach.” Through interpersonal and intrapersonal scenarios, we will learn how to maintain sisterly accountability and successful chapter working relations. Presenter: Soror Tajh Ferguson.

156 Fitting IN Standing OUT: Transitioning to a Graduate Chapter

The transition into a graduate chapter will be an exciting next step to “Life Long Membership.” If you are beginning that step, let’s talk about your role in staying active, involved and contributing in a leadership capacity as you continue to be of service to all mankind. Presenter: Soror Noel Marie Niles.

192 Making the Old New: How to Rinse and Reuse Programs

With the beginning of a new administration just around the corner, undergraduate chapters must learn to upgrade staple programs to remain in compliance with the national program. We will discover innovative ways to ensure chapter programs are timeless and transition from one administration to the next. Presenter: Soror Crystal Shelton.

188 Divine Intervention: Who runs the Yard?

Delta Beef? Lyle Love? The purpose of this workshop is to explore the NPHC culture on undergraduate campuses and encourage NPHC support and relationships of mutual respect with other fraternities and sororities. Presenter: Kendra Smith.

EMOTIONAL STIMULUS PACKAGE FORUM (SF05)

An “SOS” For All Of Us!

The frenetic pace of our lives, coupled with an uncertain economy and the demands of being all things to so many people is taking its toll on the emotional well being of many women. If you have ever found your self saying, “The more I do, the more I realize there is even more that needs to be done. I just can’t keep up with everything.” Whatever it is... a setback is a set up for a comeback. Are you trying to be and respond to all things? What would happen if you said “No”? Enough is enough! Let’s get you healthy and at peace. Expert panelist will unveil how we as African-American woman need to stop the masking and take off our super woman capes. When you enter this Forum, be sure to be ready to change! Moderator: Soror Roslalind Griffin. Panelist: TBA.

176A Saving Our Selves

Denial is not a river in Egypt! Are you masking your overload with what you feel are entitlements, but may signal cries for help? Sharp on the outside, but hurt on the inside? It’s time that we get real and get help. No more sick and tired of being sick and tired. This workshop will help you identify solutions and strategies to save yourself. Presenter: TBA.

176B Stop Our Stress

How are you coping with life’s drama... doctor shopping for the right pill, maxing out your credit cards, gambling, or working way too much? This workshop will help you identify the toxic coping skills you may be using to keep your life in balance. Come learn how to shift to more healthy coping skills and keep it all together. Presenter: TBA.

176C Sensitize Our Sisterhood

This workshop is designed to help chapters recognize some of the emotional needs of sorors. As a chapter leader, you are responsible for the well being of your organization. Sorors and their families may be experiencing tough times in this season of their sisterhood. How can chapters be supportive and keep sorors engaged? This workshop will be especially helpful for chapter basilei, membership chairmen, hodegos and chapter chaplains. Presenter: TBA.

193 $ OUT OF SORTS... MANAGING DEBT

Money out of sorts... Budgets bulging... Need to get control of your finances... There is help out there to assist you in developing strategies for: debt management, credit card relief, developing a realistic budget and following it. This is your opportunity to take a personal financial inventory to determine the most effective way to minimize and eliminate the stress in your life resulting from your finances. Presenter: Soror Martha Perine-Beard.

194 Starting Over Strategically: Repositioning Yourself in the Job Market

Downsizing is a direct result of the state of the economy. Displaced workers are finding it increasingly difficult to find jobs in their chosen professions at the salaries they are accustomed to receiving. The answer could be changing professions. This workshop will help you to “reposition” your skills and expertise to make you more attractive to potential employers in a tight and competitive job market. Presenter: Soror Robin Hurd-Graham.

THE TOTAL YOU FORUM (SF06) Your Signature — It’s Time to Get Up-Close & Personal

“Your Signature” is more than how you write your name. Your signature is the essence of how you look and present yourself to others. All of us would do better if we knew better. What we don’t know CAN hurt us. Our personality, posture and appearance say a lot about who we are. This forum will address the importance of establishing the right self image and will prepare us for being intentional about changing for the better. Moderator: Soror Linda Groomes Walton. Panelist: TBA.

SUPPORTING WORKSHOPS FOR THE TOTAL YOU FORUM

195 Know What to Say and How to Say It: Oral and Written Communication Tips

Nervous about that next presentation or the message you sent in that last written document? You can do something about those nerves with this workshop. Hear basic “how to’s” that will enhance your communication signature to ensure that your message is received effectively. Communication through email, formal and informal interactions and official written communications will be addressed. Presenter: TBA.

196 Up Close and Personal: Enhancing Your Visual Signature

Your handwriting is not the only thing that gives subtle clues about you as a person. Your physical appearance says even more. What message are you sending with your hair style, your make-up, your facial expression and your posture? How willing are you to adjust and adapt to improve your image. General tips on how to project your visual signature will be shared. Experts will be prepared to evaluate the appearance and provide feedback to interested workshop participants. Presenter: TBA.

197 Up Close and Personal: Your Style

Stay ahead of fashion do’s and don’ts. Do you have the right pieces in your wardrobe for your body type? Learn how to invest in those classic pieces that will last season after season. Additionally, learn where to augment your wardrobe with more faddish styles. Experts will share tips on how to look great all day and into the evening. TBA.

198 Up Close and Personal: Etiquette

You only get one chance for a first impression, so you want to project your best at all times in your attitude and behavior. Obtain the tools needed to ensure your demeanor is appropriate in both business and social environments. Learn the skills and practice the behavior from experts who assist others in the marginal difference between mediocrity and achieving success. Presenter: TBA.

199 Self and Interpersonal Awareness

Establishing and maximizing relationships begins with you! Self awareness of your strengths and how people see you is the foundation for productive and lasting relationships. This workshop will use elements of the Johari Windows concept to help you better understand your interpersonal communications and relationships and how you can build on them. Presenter: Soror Ramona M. Hill.

Request For Panelists & Presenters

The excitement is building on all fronts as we finalize the plans for Boule 2010. The Extraordinary, Supportive and Purposeful Forums and Workshops detailed on pages 59-63 are timely. They reflect our traditions, the current environment and forward thinking. The Economic Leadership Through Service Committee invites you to play a role in the success of the scheduled Forums and Workshops as a panelist, presenter or facilitator. Once again, we have tapped into our existing database of workshop presenters to identify sorors with the experience and expertise to deliver stimulating, highly participative workshops. We are pleased to include confirmed presenters for approximately 60% of the listed workshops. There are still opportunities for additional panelist, presenters and facilitators. If you are planning to attend Boule 2010, have the expertise and interest in presenting a workshop or being a forum panelist, we invite you to submit your proposal for the following forums and workshops:

"At Kim's Kids, we believe that education is the responsibility of the parent, the school and the community. Teachers are entitled to all of the support they need in order to nourish each child and to conduct the classroom in an appropriate fashion. We believe that each person is a unique and valuable individual with talents, potential and strengths. In order to fulfill our responsibilities, we want to challenge the child with the greatest learning experience that we can provide. Children learn best through play. We promise each child a day that is safe, fun and educational."

Black Wax History Museum — the Griot Tour

$25 PER PERSON • FIVE HOUR TOUR (11:00 AM – 4:00 PM)
FRIDAY, JULY 9 (ACS05) (ACG02) (ACC03) (ACY03)

First visit historic St. Louis Union Station. Once the busiest rail terminal in the world, the Grand Hall and Train Shed have been magnificently renovated to house specialty stores and festive markets. After a brief walking tour of the Station, there will be time for lunch on your own and shopping.

Next, enjoy a tour of the Griot Museum of Black History and Culture (Black World History Wax Museum) where you will see the linking of the past, present and future of African-American history through life-size figures, historical documents, artifacts and special exhibits. The museum is one of only two wax museums in the country dedicated to black history.

Includes: Tour guide, a brief overview of Union Station with lunch and shopping on own, admission and tour of the Griot Museum of Black History and Culture (Black World History Wax Museum) with docent tour, tour guide gratuity and on-site coordination.

Sumner High School—EHL Academy

$25 PER PERSON (ACS04) (ACG01) (ACC02) (ACY01)
FRIDAY, JULY 9 (9:00 AM – 3:00 PM) • SIX HOUR TOUR

Sumner High School, also known as Charles E. Sumner High School, is a St. Louis public high school that was the first high school for African-American students west of the Mississippi River. Together with Vashon High School, Sumner was one of the two segregated public high schools in St. Louis for African-American students. Established in 1875 only after extensive lobbying by some of St. Louis' African-American residents, Sumner moved to its current location in 1908. Take a guided tour thru Sumner High School where Ethel Hedgeman Lyle attended. The high school was established on Eleventh Street in St. Louis between Poplar and Spruce Street, in response to demands to provide educational opportunities, following a requirement that school boards support black education with The Radical Constitution of 1865 in Missouri. The school was moved in the 1880s because parents complained that their children were walking past the gallows on their way to school. Sumner was the only Black public high school in St. Louis until 1927. Notable Alumni: Arthur Ashe, Chuck Berry, Tina Turner, Wendell O. Pruitt, and Dick Gregory.

TAKE A TOUR OF EHL ACADEMY

— Hedgeman Lyle Academy, a charter school, is one of the oldest independent public schools in St. Louis. EHLA was founded in 2000 by the Omicron Theta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., a strong supporter of public education and youth development projects. The first Ethel Hedgeman Lyle Academy served students in Kindergarten through grade 2 with an additional grade to be added each year. Due to rapid growth, the school was relocated, and in 2004, the Ethel Hedgeman Lyle Academy opened its first middle/high school. The Ethel Hedgeman Lyle Academy currently operates two campuses in downtown St. Louis. The K-5 Academy with an enrollment of 400 students and the middle-high Academy serves 500 students in grades 6-12.

SATURDAY, JULY 10 (10:00 AM – 5:30 PM) • EIGHT HOUR TOUR

Today, guests will enjoy the Saint Louis Zoo, recently rated the #1 Zoological Park by Zagat. Begin your visit at The Living World, an interactive visitor education center. Then visit the more than 3,500 residents living in their natural habitats on 90 acres. With your Safari Pass, take a journey through the Children's Zoo where kids can get wild and zoom down a clear slide through the otter pool while the river otters swim all about, hop through sprouting geysers, climb a spider web or dig through the sand like aardvarks. After lunch, board the Zooline Railroad for a 20-minute tour that will weave through tunnels and past your favorite animal exhibits. Take a ride on the Conservation Carousel featuring 64 colorful hand-carved wooden animals, representing protected and endangered species at the Saint Louis Zoo.

Includes: Tour guide, Saint Louis Zoo with a Safari Pass which includes a visit to the Children's Zoo, Zooline Railroad, Sea Lion Show, Conservation Carousel and Wild Ride Motion Simulator, a Kudu coupon lunch voucher, guide gratuity and on-site coordination.

St. Louis Walk of Fame and the Scott Joplin House

$40 PER PERSON (ACS08) (ACG03) (ACC05) (ACY05)
SATURDAY, JULY 10 (10:00 AM – 3:00 PM) • FIVE HOUR TOUR

Your tour begins at the Scott Joplin House where the famous ragtime composer lived in the early 1900s. The home, a state historic landmark, has been restored to its turn-of-the-century appearance. You will pass the offices of the St. Louis American — the second black newspaper in the city founded in 1928. The Argus newspaper, located several blocks northwest, was founded in 1912 and is the oldest continuous black business in the city.

Next, your guests will have a chance to experience "The Loop", a historic district on the National Register of Historic Places and named one of the "10 Greatest Streets in America." The Loop is a six-block area complete with restaurants, shopping, art and entertainment and is named after the old streetcar turn-around that was once a part of the Delmar line. The motor coach will follow that old route down Delmar, entering The Loop through the majestic Lion's Gate. Originally erected in 1909, the lions were replaced in 1989 from molds of the original cats. Enjoy lunch on your own at one of the many restaurants located on Delmar Avenue.

The St. Louis Walk of Fame is located in The Loop, honoring the famous citizens of St. Louis with brass stars and biographies. A few of the honorees include Tina Turner, John Goodman, Tennessee Williams, Scott Joplin and Josephine Baker. You can play a tune on the world's best jukebox at Blueberry Hill where Chuck Berry and other St. Louis stars perform regularly in the intimate Duck Room. The Loop also features an eclectic mix of retail shops perfect for an afternoon of fun.

Includes: Tour guide, admission/tour of the Scott Joplin House, a driving overview of the "The Loop" in University City with lunch, shopping on own, guide and driver gratuity and on-site coordination.

The Black History Tour

$20 PER PERSON (ACS10) (ACG05) (ACC07) (ACY07)
SATURDAY, JULY 10 (1:00 PM – 5:00 PM) • FOUR HOUR TOUR

Your Destination St. Louis tour guide traces the history of St. Louis beginning with the city's original settlement, Laclède's Landing. It is now a nine-block historic district filled with renovated turn-of-the-century buildings housing shops, eateries and offices. You'll see Clamorgan Alley, named after Jacques Clamorgan and the prominent Clamorgan family, part of the black aristocracy of St. Louis. Pass the site of the land grant for Ester, a free mulatto woman who in 1793 petitioned Spain and received a grant of taxable land to cultivate in 1793.

First visit the majestic Old Courthouse which has remained over the past 150 years as one of St. Louis' most prominent architectural landmarks. The Old Courthouse was the site of the first two trials of the pivotal Dred Scott case in 1847 and 1850. It is listed in the national Park Service's national Underground Railroad "Network to Freedom" which recognizes sites, programs and facilities with verifiable association to the Underground Railroad. Enjoy a tour through this historical structure and the restored courtrooms to learn more about our 19th century judicial system. Finally, you will view the Shelley House a modest two-story masonry residence built in St. Louis in 1906 and is associated with an African American family's struggle for justice that has a profound effect on American society. Because the J.D. Shelley family decided to fight for the right to live in the home of their choosing, the United States Supreme Court addressed the issue of restrictive racial covenants in housing in the landmark 1948 case of Shelley vs. Kraemer.

Includes: Tour guide, a driving overview of downtown St. Louis, tour of the Old Courthouse and a driving overview with views of the Shelley House, guide gratuity and on-site coordination.

St. Louis Sights Driving Tour

$40 PER PERSON (ACS11) (ACG06) (ACC08) (ACY08)
SUNDAY, JULY 11 (9:00 AM–5:00 PM) • EIGHT HOUR TOUR

Your tour begins with an overview of the historic Ville Neighborhood situated just northwest of downtown and covers a nine-by-five-block area. Formerly known as Elleardsville after Charles Elleard, a white horticulturalist who maintained the areas conservatory and greenhouses, The Ville is remembered as the cultural center of the African-American community in St. Louis. Between 1920 and 1930 the African American population in The Ville went from 8% to 86% and the area thrived. During your tour learn about the historic institutions that called this area home. Today, Sumner High School, named for Senator Charles Sumner, still calls the Ville home. En route to your next destination, enjoy a delicious boxed lunch. Next journey to Forest Park the site of the 1904 World's Fair and one of the largest city parks in the United States. Today, the Park houses the world-famous Saint Louis Zoo, the Saint Louis Art Museum, the Missouri History Museum at the Jefferson Memorial, the Science Center and the Muny, among other attractions. The 1904 World's Fair is still considered today to be one of the grandest World's Fair. Hoping to promote the economic advancement of the black community, African-Americans were energized by the World's Fair officials' decision to impose a non-discrimination admission policy. However, even though the policy was in place, discrimination still occurred in many ways during the Fair.

Includes: Tour guide, a driving overview of the historic Ville neighborhood, a boxed lunch and Forest Park with views of the Missouri History Museum and the St. Louis Art Museum, guide gratuity and on-site coordination.

Missouri Wine Country

$75 PER PERSON (ACS12) (ACG07)
SUNDAY, JULY 11 (10:00 AM–6:00 PM) • EIGHT HOUR TOUR

The rolling hills and breath-taking vistas of Augusta, Missouri await you. Your Destination St. Louis tour guide will familiarize you with the past and present of Missouri wine making during the drive to Augusta. Wine production has been a part of Missouri's heritage since the mid-1800s. At the turn of the 20th century, Missouri ranked second in the nation in wine production. Visit the award-winning Mount Pleasant Winery and tour their historic underground limestone cellars. Afterwards sample the many fine wines in their tasting room; you'll even have the opportunity to purchase some tasty treats for the trip home. Following the tasting, you may enjoy sitting on the patio overlooking the beautiful bluffs of the Missouri River while sipping your purchases. There is a general store/deli where guests may purchase sandwiches and snacks on own. Includes: Tour guide, winery tour and tasting at Mount Pleasant Winery, driver and guide gratuities, and on-site coordination. Note: Travel time is approximately one hour each way
